

On October 25th, 2018, Oskar Chomicki passed away

A fundamental figure in the world of medical physics

Co-founder and long-term

Secretary of the Board of the Polish Society of Medical Physics (PTFM)

Honorary Member of PTFM

A member of the American Association of Physics in Medicine (AAPM)

V-ce President & President of the International Organization of Medical Physics (IOMP) (1997-2006)

Fellow (Honorary Member) IOMP

Honorary Member of the European Federation of Organizations of Medical Physics

Author and co-author of several dozen scientific papers

Co-author and translator of books on the subject of application

accelerators in medicine

Knight of the Golden Cross of Merit and Medal of Merit for Warsaw

During the International Day of Medical Physics events in Poland, he will be honoured with a minute of silence