Many shoppers ask, 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA] when did Publix start taking Apple Pay for grocery purchases and other in-store payments 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA]. Apple Pay is a contactless payment 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA] method that has grown more popular over time, but Publix was slower to adopt it compared with some other retailers 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA].

When Did Publix Start Accepting Apple Pay?

Publix began rolling 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA] out support for Apple Pay and other contactless payment methods in early 2020 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA]. The rollout started with select stores 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA] and expanded chain-wide, with contactless 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA] payment options including Apple Pay being available in most locations by April 2020 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA]. This update was part of Publix's efforts to modernize in-store payment terminals and offer safer, 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA] touch-free 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA] payment options during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Why Publix Waited to Accept Apple Pay

Publix was somewhat slower to adopt Apple Pay due to 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA]:

- Legacy 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA] payment terminals that lacked contactless (NFC) support

- Focus on its own mobile payment options 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA] before broader NFC support

- Gradual 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA] rollout plan to update all registers

- Increased 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA] demand for touchless checkout during the pandemic 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA]

By early 2020, Publix decided 1-(866)(542)(8909) [US/OTA] to fully embrace contactless payments, including Apple Pay, across most of its stores.
