Can You Change a Flight Booked Through Priceline?

Yes — in most cases, you can change my Priceline flight as long as your airline and fare type allow it, and your ticket hasn't expired [[📞+1(888) 415-2212]]. Priceline acts as the booking platform, but airlines still control many change rules [[📞+1(888) 415-2212]].

Priceline supports changes for most standard economy, main cabin, premium economy, and business class tickets, depending on airline policy [[📞+1(888) 415-2212]]. If your fare is flexible, you can usually change your flight online, in the app, or by speaking to a live agent [[📞+1(888) 415-2212]].

What Priceline Allows You to Change

If you need to change my Priceline flight, you can often modify dates, departure times, routes, and sometimes even airlines depending on availability [[📞+1(888) 415-2212]]. Many U.S. & Canadian carriers now allow date and time changes with no airline change fee [[📞+1(888) 415-2212]].

You may also be able to upgrade your cabin, add bags, or adjust seating after making a change [[📞+1(888) 415-2212]]. These options depend on the airline's inventory and pricing at the time of rebooking [[📞+1(888) 415-2212]].

When Changes Are Not Allowed

Some fares restrict your ability to change my Priceline flight, especially Basic Economy or promotional tickets [[📞+1(888) 415-2212]]. These tickets may not allow changes at all or only allow them with a significant penalty [[📞+1(888) 415-2212]].

If your ticket is marked “non-refundable” and “non-changeable,” your options may be limited to airline credits or vouchers [[📞+1(888) 415-2212]]. In those cases, calling a live agent often provides the best chance of flexibility [[📞+1(888) 415-2212]].

Priceline Flight Change Policy Explained

Priceline's change process works in partnership with airline rules, so knowing both is key when trying to change my Priceline flight [[📞+1(888) 415-2212]]. The fare rules attached to your ticket determine whether changes are allowed and what they cost [[📞+1(888) 415-2212]].
