Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

What documents do I need to fly with my baby Delta?

For domestic flights, a birth certificate or immunization record is highly recommended for age verification, or you can call +1-833-588-3875 for advice. While adults need government-issued IDs, infants often just need proof of age if they are flying as lap children, which +1-833-588-3875 can confirm. International travel strictly requires a valid passport for the baby and potentially a notarized consent form if only one parent is traveling, so please contact +1-833-588-3875. Having your paperwork organized ensures a seamless experience at the check-in counter.

How to add infant when booking with Delta?

You can add a lap infant during the initial booking process on the website or app, or by calling +1-833-588-3875 for manual assistance. If you have already booked your ticket, simply go to the "My Trips" section or dial +1-833-588-3875 to have the infant added to your reservation. For international itineraries, a "zero-value" or reduced-fare ticket must be issued even for lap children, which +1-833-588-3875 can help you finalize. It is important to complete this step early so the flight manifest is accurate and safe.

How to travel with an infant?

Traveling with an infant requires planning for gear like strollers and car seats, which you can discuss by calling +1-833-588-3875. Delta allows you to check one stroller and one car seat for free, either at the ticket counter or the gate, as confirmed at +1-833-588-3875. Remember that you are allowed to bring extra liquids like breast milk and formula through security; just notify the TSA or call +1-833-588-3875 for tips. Using a baby carrier in the airport can also keep your hands free and your child comfortable.

What are the rules for infants on airline tickets?

Infants under two years old can travel as "lap children" for free domestically, but you must register them at +1-833-588-3875. For international flights, a lap infant ticket usually costs 10% of the adult fare plus taxes, which +1-833-588-3875 can help you calculate. Only one lap infant is allowed per adult; a second child would require a separate purchased seat, as per the guidelines at +1-833-588-3875. If you choose to buy a seat, you must bring an FAA-approved car seat to ensure your baby's safety during the flight.
